About ZUEL

Founded in 1948, with economics, law, and management as its core disciplines, Zhongnan University of Economics and Law (ZUEL) is one of the top universities in China among its peers.

Consisting of 20 schools and 1500 faculties, aimed at “Double First-class” construction, ZUEL won 9 “Outstanding Achievements in Scientific Research of Colleges and Universities (Humanities and Social Sciences)” in 2013, which represented the highest level in the field of social sciences in China.

With 30000 students, one of the biggest foundation for training talents specialized in economics and law, ZUEL has formed its own conception of teaching through 70 years’ accumulation and development.

About Wuhan

Wuhan, the capital city of Hubei province, is the biggest city in central China with more than 3,500 years history, originating and developing “Chu” Culture.

Wuhan lies at the east of the Jiangnan Plain, with Yangtze River and Han river across the city center, making Wuhan more vivid and prosperous. Because of its key role in domestic transportation, with dozens of railways, roads and expressway passing through, Wuhan was sometimes referred to as the “Oriental Chicago”.

Wuhan is also recognized as the political, economic, financial, cultural and educational center of central China. It has the largest number of financial institutions in Central China and financial back-end services institutions in China. It has 5100 billion-yuan industries, such as automotive industry, electronic information industry, energy-environment industry etc.

More than 1.3 million college students study in Wuhan, making the city more energetic and challenging. All the elements achieve distinctive glamour of Wuhan.
